

Articles and Presentations

Barbara Poole is the CEO and Founder of Employaid.com, the top tier online workforce management tool dedicated to creating a more productive and motivated workforce, better relationships with employers and employees, as well as providing the best practice HR counsel and advice. When it comes to work related issues — be it addressing layoffs and unemployment, keeping or finding new work, health insurance and benefits, or even dealing with an office bully, Barbara Poole is one of the nation's foremost experts. Her knowledge of workforce issues, employee productivity and workforce related issues allows her to interview and contribute articles expertly on a number of topics related to workforce management, HR and employee issues.

To access more information on Poole search these sites:

www.employaid.com
(Newsroom Section)

www.expertclick.com

www.authorsandexperts.com

Customize a topic to your situation and address your need quickly or choose from a list of potential articles.

- Handling Forced Change
- Dealing with Negativity
- Women at Work & Returning to the Workforce
- How to Save your Career when your Industry Declines
- Tips for First-time Supervisors
- Beyond GPA: Making and Marketing Your College Achievements

employaidTM

Your lifeline at work.

To find out more, contact us online at www.employaid.com or call toll free at 888-935-9675.